GCC HIMSS Women in Leadership Event

Join us on January 7th as Carol Frohlinger, internationally known speaker and co-author of Her Place at the Table and Nice Girls Just Don't Get It, shares her perspective on the ways women can negotiate with authenticity to achieve their maximum personal and professional potential. The program will include networking and an opportunity to collaborate with accomplished female leaders from our community.

Key Take-Aways:

- Understanding the role gender plays: The "Tiara Syndrome"- why doing great work is not enough
- Recognizing the difference between "Big N" (formal) and "little n" (informal) negotiations
- Avoiding dangerous "drive-by negotiations" that produce unintended consequences
- Identifying ways women commonly get in their own way and what to do about it
- Responding to challenges — what to do when things go wrong despite good planning

Event Details:

January 7th from 6:00-9:00 p.m.
Location: Lindner Center in Lombard
610 East Butterfield Road, Lombard, IL 60148

Cost:

Provider Organization Employee (Provider, Hosp/Clinic Employee, Prof Org) - FREE
Students - FREE
Vendors and Consultants - $50

January 5th "How to Create a Life-Giving Culture in Your Healthcare Organization"

Join Michael Lee Stallard, President of E Pluribus Partners to discuss how to create a thriving "connection culture" in your healthcare organization. Connection is key to improving empathy and understanding, which is central to the development of a strong relationship between healthcare professionals and patients, and the reduction of stress and anxiety that accompanies illness.

January 5, 2016
12:00 p.m. - 1:00 p.m. CST

Event Objectives:

In this webcast you will learn:

1. 3 types of relational subcultures in every organization
2. 6 universal human needs to thrive at work
3. 5 elements of a connection culture that helps individuals and organizations thrive
4. The science of connection and why connection is described as a superpower
5. Mini case studies and best practices of leading healthcare organizations

Join Michael Lee Stallard, President of E Pluribus Partners to discuss how to create a thriving culture in your organization.
